Traditional dresses and photo workshop in Bergsjön, Sweden November 2022

Teachers who attended the feeling of beauty workshop in Poland applied what they learned in a workshop/photo session. Students from the multicultural Finnish folk high school participated by dressing in their cultural folk dresses and using face painting. Some of the photos from the event were used for the projects hand out Calendar which you can download from :

The project final transnational meeting in Gothenburg Sweden February 2023 the partners discussed the remaining activities, the project's results and impact, the activities evaluation, and local dissemination plans. In the afternoon, the participants participated in a workshop organized by the school in cooperation with other regional culture associations. Magnus Rosen, a local musician, talked about his life and music career.

About the Project

CULTURAL EMPOWERMENT OF ADULT LEARNERS (CEAL) is an Erasmus+ Strategic partnership in adult education between 4 adult learning organizations in Europe: Finska Folkhögskolan stiftelse from Sweden, RAIDO from Poland, Ulearn Cyprus, and CSV Belluno Italy. The project aimed to establish a partnership for creativity between organizations that work with adult students, including those with disabilities or from disadvantaged groups, to stimulate European awareness, enhance skills development, boost quality and innovation, enhance digital and communicative skills, and contribute to the recovery resilience of the cultural and creative sectors against covid19 pandemic negative effects.
